SNEEM DRAMSOC PRESENTS

AN INSPECTOR CALLS

By J.B. Priestley

PROGRAMME PRICE: 50p (€0.63)

Our 2001 production marks a change in direction with J.B. Priestley's modern morality play An Inspector Calls.

A well-made play, it combines elements of a whodunit with relativity and the spirit world: Birling, a wealthy Edwardian industrialist, is celebrating his daughter's engagement when the party is interrupted by the arrival of a strange police inspector investigating the suicide of a former female employee of the firm. Under interrogation, each of those present admits to secrets which link them to her death!!!

The play is in three acts, with an interval after Act 2.

All three acts, which are continuous, take place in the dining-room of the Birlings' house in Brumley, an industrial city.
